AIMS AND PURPOSES OF THE SILVANA COMMUNITY FAIR

- To prepare and develop the youth of our community and the surrounding areas for participation in the Stanwood-Camano, Evergreen, and Washington State Fairs.
- To promote farm living and rural activities through displays of farm home products.
- To provide an opportunity for exhibition of livestock and agricultural products.
- To promote a variety of exhibits including youth, individual, and community organizations.
- To strive for excellence each year.
- To build pride in our community.
- To bring about better unity between youth and adults of our community.
- To provide wholesome family activities and a “fun” day for all.
- To provide an opportunity for commercial exhibits.
- To promote the health and welfare of our community through medical services such as educational displays and the presence of an ambulance and an attendant to take fair-goers blood pressure.

The Fair Board hopes the above Aims and Purposes are accomplished by the Silvana fairgoers and exhibitors.

THE FAIR BOARD RESERVES THE RIGHT TO ASK ANY EXHIBITOR, AND THEIR PARENT AND/OR GUARDIAN, TO LEAVE THE GROUNDS FOR CONDUCT UNBECFITTING OF OUR FAIR.

POTENTIAL FOR LIVESTOCK DIVISION CANCELLATION

Silvana Fair Livestock Superintendents pay close attention to USDA guidelines, animal health trends, and current risks to livestock posed by contagious illnesses. As an example, the poultry/pigeon/waterfowl superintendent is closely monitoring developments and guidance associated with Avian Influenza. The Silvana Fair will abide by USDA guidelines for showing animals in all divisions. If necessary to comply with USDA guidelines, a division may be removed from the fair to protect animal and/or human health. If the Silvana Fair concludes a division cannot safely participate, registered participants will be notified as soon as possible.
